STATINTL

Dear Lou:

Thank you very much for your note relative to the subject which we had discussed on your last visit here. We are, when we get a chance to breathe, collecting together various ideas which might be used, and then we will proceed further in considering methods of implementation. We shall probably be in touch with you again on the subject, but in the meantime if you have any additional thoughts, they too will be appreciated.

Since I last saw you, the fatal decision has been made that I will be resigning from the Agency on the 15th of this month. It was a hard decision to make, but in the long run I believe the best for all. In departing, let me say how much I appreciate the very great help which you have always been to us. Whenever we have had a problem, you have jumped in and really made major contributions. It has always been a pleasure working with you, and I hope that our paths will remain crossed in the future.

When I leave, Col. Giller will be holding down the fort for me temporarily, and he will have the action on this item. I will also see that  is informed.

STATINTL

Sincerely,

Herbert Scoville, Jr.
